Personal statement

I am a self-taught developer. I have been teaching myself web development using a variety of resources online with a bias towards the back end using PHP. I have a home lab which I work on where I use Proxmox, Docker, Home Assistant and many other programs that I find interesting and useful.

Key Skills

- HTML, CSS and MySQL.
- PHP, Laravel, JavaScript and Vue.js.
- Basic Systems Admin skills.
- My Github
- VS Code and Android Studio.
- Able to teach myself the skills needed to complete most tasks.
- Always willing to learn new skills.

Work Experience

Coders Guild, Leeds

(October 2023 – January 2024)

- Front end bootcamp
- I had two lessons a week with homework to do
- I used JavaScript and Bootstrap.

Junior, Bune Bear, London

(October 2019 – January 2020)

- I mentored with a senior web developer for 3 months.
- He gave me tasks to complete and guidance when needed.
- I used PHP and MySQL.
- I gained extremely valuable experience and knowledge throughout my time with him.

Latest Project

I created a clone of Instagram. This project allowed me to learn more about Laravel and also implement a little bit of Vue.js as well.

What I Used

- VS Code as my IDE.
- Git for version control.
- Laravel framework.
- Vue.js component.
- Flexbox and CSS.
- MySQL for the database.
- Eloquent ORM.
- I followed the MVC convention.
- Tinker to interact with the DB.

Other Projects

- Twitter clone (Laravel)
- Takeaway ordering app (Laravel)
- Image uploading site (PHP)
- Rock paper scissors game (JavaScript)
